

Celebrating Art and the Artist

An Area Wide Fine Art Show

ARTFEST 2010

An Invitation

The gift of art...

Each of us is endowed with a creative bent that thrives on experiencing truth in visual ways.

Whether we're viewing an oil painting by an old master in a museum, or seeing an abstract expressionists' work in an uptown coffee house, the visual arts touch our soul at a deep level.

Historically, the arts have been a powerful influence within culture shaping us and inspiring conversations about truth and the meaning of life.

Artfest is an opportunity for Bartlesville area artists ...

- To celebrate the creative arts
  - To meet other artists
  - To have their art recognized
- And, if interested,*
- To offer their art for sale.

Artfest 2010 is hosted by Grace Community Church (GCC), a non-denominational church whose mission includes serving our city in a manner consistent with the humble example of Jesus. GCC has a high view of the arts and recognizes that historically the church has served as both champion and patron of the arts. We host Artfest 2010 with that distinguished legacy in mind.

A Different Kind of Art Show

The leadership committee for Artfest 2010 invites Bartlesville area artists to submit original artistic works in three art categories:

- 1) Drawing – pen & ink, pencil, charcoal, pastel, etc.
- 2) Painting – watercolor, oil, acrylic, etc.
- 3) Sculpture – original works in metal, stone, wood, etc.

Artists will be allowed to enter up to two works in the show. However, only one work may be entered into the Awards Competition category. The second entry will be entered in the Show Only category. There is no entry fee for the Show Only category and the $30 entry fee for the Awards Competition category is only required if the work is accepted into the show by the Artfest 2010 jury. The fee is due by Nov. 30, 2010.

No mass-produced copies, digital art or photography will be accepted this year.

Artfest 2010 (December 2-4) is a juried art show with a $500 cash award for the best work in each adult category and a $1,000 cash award for the best piece overall as selected by the judge. There is also a $300 Award for the People's Choice award. Youth entries (15-18 years old). Awards for the top three works by youth will be: First: $150, Second: $100 and Third: $75.

The Theme

The theme for this year's show is The Word Became Flesh, a phrase from the New Testament gospel of John suggesting that God's eternal word became flesh in the person of Jesus of Nazareth.

To gain inspiration for your work, we invite you to consult the Bible, and especially the nativity stories of Jesus, from the following five biblical passages.

Matthew 1:18-25

Matthew 2:1-12

Luke 1:26-38

Luke 1:39-45

Luke 2:1-20

John 1:1-14

Judging the Art

A jury panel selected by Grace Community Church (GCC) will first review the entries for appropriateness to theme and outstanding craftsmanship, creativity and interesting artistic expression. This panel will select the works which will be accepted for the final show. A judge will then be employed to make the selections for prizes.

Artfest 2010 is pleased to announce that Ragon Steele has agreed to serve as our judge.

Important Dates and Timeline

Early November 2010 – On Thursday, November 4, between the hours of 7 and 10:00 p.m., completed works must be delivered to GCC for jury panel review.

All 2-dimensional works submitted for review must be framed for exhibition and ready to be hung. Sculpture should be fixed to a secured base that will allow it to sit firmly on a table. Works that are not appropriately presented may be rejected for exhibit.

New info:

Artist may choose to leave their works in the possession of Grace Community Church until the end of the show on Dec. 5 if they are accepted into the show, or they may pick them up on dates specified at the registration event. If the artist chooses not to leave the art with GCC, it will need to be returned to GCC for show set up and judging on Tuesday, Nov. 30, or by scheduled special arrangements. Works not accepted will need to be picked up on the same dates as specified at the registration event. Artists will be notified by phone if work is not accepted by the jury.

December 2010 – Thursday, December 2, (the day before the show opens) a select group of Artfest patrons will have an opportunity to review each piece at our Artists' and Patrons' Reception.

At that event, some patrons may opt to purchase pieces for their own collections. Artfest volunteers will be available to handle sales for the duration of the show.

Fees

There is a nonrefundable $30 entry fee due for accepted works (This applies to all entries in Awards Competition category) on Tuesday, Nov. 30 when final works are set up for judging and exhibition. There is no fee for second entries of artists. Those works will automatically be placed in the Show Only category. There will also be a 15% commission on all sales. All sales are final (no returns or refunds).

How You Can Participate

1. You can enter the show for a nonrefundable cost of $30. To enter, you must be fifteen years or older.
2. You can sign up to volunteer at the Artfest events in Nov./Dec. 2010.
