THE GOD WHO HEARS

Exodus 2:23 – 3:12

By Josh McNall

Introduction: The central question of Christianity is not “What should I do?” or even “Do you believe?” The Bible is more concerned with a different query: “Who is this God that we called to worship and obey?” Exodus 2 and 3 provide some of the clearest answers to that question in the entire Bible. And they are important today as they were more than three millennia ago.

1. He hears

(2:23-24)

2. He remembers

(2:24b)

3. He sees and cares

(2:25; 3:7)

4. He gives his name and presence

(3:8, [12–15])

5. He sends a mediator

(3:10)
