
Journey to Freedom / A Series in Exodus 1-20

BY THE BLOOD OF THE LAMB

Exodus 11 - 12

By Josh McNall

Introduction: What's the relation between God's grace and judgment?

Modern people often pit these concepts (grace and justice) against one another—as if to be merciful means that God refuses to judge evil. Not so.

This week we'll explore how the final plague upon Egypt reveals crucial aspects of God's character, and points forward to the saving death of Jesus, whereby we too are saved by the blood of the Lamb.

1. Salvation often comes through judgment

2. While God is patient, He is also just

3. Sin never occurs in a vacuum

4. God offers freedom and forgiveness by the blood of the Lamb
