JESUS WANTS TO TRANSFORM MISSIONARIES

Acts 10

By Josh McNall

Introduction: One attitude toward cross-cultural missions might be that God is sending “us” to transform “them.” Yet today we’ll see that being part of God’s mission also transforms us in the process.

Just as with Peter and Cornelius, the Holy Spirit wants to use cross-cultural missions to grow our faith, expose our blind spots, and to expand our view of God’s Kingdom. And as with Peter and Cornelius, this can happen without you ever leaving your home country.
