DIG HERE!

THE LOCAL CHURCH AS A 'WELL' THAT SERVES THE CITY

Jeremiah 29:7; Genesis 29:2; John 4; Genesis 26:15

By Josh McNall

Introduction: What does it look like for a local church to serve the city? In Africa, this sometimes involves the digging of a water well next to the church building. These wells become way points by which needs are met, people gather and the gospel can go forth. Today, we'll see how the same thing can happen in our own community.

1. Wells are _____ for people who might not otherwise interact.

2. Wells meet _____ as well as spiritual ones.

3. Wells require an investment, maintenance, and _____ .

4. When it comes to digging wells, _____ matters.

5. Big idea: “Dig Here!”
